

Colliers International's Kevin Morris Named One of South Florida's Most Influential Black Professionals

Fort Lauderdale, FL | May 24, 2017 – Colliers International South Florida congratulates Kevin Morris, Senior Vice President, on being recognized as one of South Florida's Most Powerful and Influential Black Professionals in Business and Industry for 2017 by Legacy Magazine. The honorees were nominated by members of the community and selected by the magazine based on their professional and philanthropic accomplishments.

Morris spearheads Colliers International's Affordable Housing Division to help clients navigate the complexities of the affordable housing landscape – including strategic planning issues, development and tax matters and intricacies of federal, state and housing programs.

"Kevin is an asset to Colliers and the community as a whole," said Ken Krasnow. "He has the unique ability to help affordable housing developers and investors identify real estate solutions that promote affordable housing opportunities in our region. He clearly views his profession as a vehicle for improving the lives of families whose income don't go up as fast as our region's cost of living."

Morris is based in the Colliers' Fort Lauderdale office. As part of the Fort Lauderdale community, we extend our congratulations to CRA Manager of the City of Fort Lauderdale Johnathan Brown, City of Fort Lauderdale Police Department Major Gregory A. Salters, Fort Lauderdale Police Major Victor London, and Economic Development Manager City of Fort Lauderdale Glendon Hall.
